

PROVOKING CURIOSITY ABOUT DATA!

Some suggested titles to explore with Early Years children as a provocation towards powerful mathematics learning conversations...

These books can be purchased either online or from your local bookstore.

- If you wish to support your local store, ask Dymocks or Seelect to see if they can access them for you
- OR check them out on www.booko.com.au which finds you the best online price
- Or go with your favourite online destination..booktopia.com.au, book depository.com or amazon.com

Exploring data
	Biggest Strongest Fastest By Steve Jenkins Has some interesting ways of representing size as data
	Lifetime By Lola M Schaefer Fantastic collection of data about animals lives that stimulates lots of conversation about quantity and data
	Animals by the Numbers (A Book of Animal Infographics) by Steve Jenkins Dinosaurs by the Numbers by Steve Jenkins
	Infographics for Kids by Susan Martineau

		Animal Kingdom By Simon Rogers
		Animals Infographics By Harriet Brundle Habitats Infographics by Harriet Brundle
		Series of Infographics books by Chris Oxlade Available as both ebook and picture books Animal Weather Population Environment
		Human Body infographics By Emilie Dufresne
		Weather and Seasons infographics By William Anthony

	Infographics Grade K By Elise Craver, Christine Schwab and Angela Triplett
	Life Science through Infographics By Rebecca Rowell and Lisa Waananen 9 others in the series (different authors)... Sport, Geography, Weather etc
	Wayland Series 5 others in this series
	Top 10 Record Breaking animals By Jon Richards and Ed Simkins (others in the series – Humans, Earth and Space, Infomania)
	National Geographic Infographics series, this is the latest – “weird but true!”  Older series called “By the Numbers”

		Animals: Amazing infographics and Cool Facts for Kids By Margaret Hynes
		Space By Jennifer Daniel and Simon Rogers
		If the world were a village By David J Smith Several pages which are great provocations for discussion. Similar tack... If by David J Smith